- 15.4. Assist the Chief Negotiator in ensuring a mechanism for contract ratification by the Membership.
- 15.5. Assist the Chief Negotiator in drafting and reviewing the results of the collective bargaining survey.
- 15.6. Assist the Chief Negotiator in forming a job action committee, if necessary.

By -Law 16 - Provincial Councilor

- 16.1. The number of Provincial Councilors arising from the Bargaining Unit shall be in accordance with the Provincial Constitution and By-laws.
- 16.2. The first Provincial Councilor generated by the Bargaining Unit numbers shall be the Bargaining Unit President.
- 16.3. The Bargaining Unit Executive shall appoint a member of the Executive as Provincial Councilor if the President is unable or unwilling to serve as Provincial Councilor.
- 16.4. Additional Provincial Councilors shall be appointed by the Bargaining Unit Executive based upon the numbers generated by the Provincial OSSTF office.

By-Law 17 - Duties of the Grievance Committee

- 17.1. Work to ensure that the contract is upheld and honoured.
- 17.2. Investigate possible violations of the contract by the Employer.
- 17.3. Rule on whether or not a violation of the contract has occurred and shall determine the course of action to be taken.
- 17.4. Investigate possible violations of the contract concerning an individual Member(s) as well as direct differences in interpretation and application of the contract between the Bargaining Unit and the Employer.
- 17.5. Act in accordance with all OSSTF By-Laws and Policies concerning grievances.
- 17.6. Insure all Members receive impartial and fair representation without discrimination by the committee.

17.7. Grievance Appeals

- 17.7.1. If a grievance officer of the Bargaining Unit decides to terminate or not pursue a grievance, the affected member(s) shall be informed in writing within three (3) working days of the decision and the reasons for not pursuing a grievance.
- 17.7.2. If the affected member(s) referenced in 17.1.1 are not satisfied with the decision of the grievance officer, they may appeal the decision to the Bargaining Unit Executive, which shall serve as the grievance appeals committee.
- 17.7.3. The decision of the grievance appeals committee is final, subject only to further review as granted by the OSSTF Provincial Constitution and Bylaws.

By -Law 18 - Selection of Time Release Staff

- 18.1. Should there be only one Time Release position available, this position shall be filled by the President of the Bargaining Unit, barring exceptional circumstances.
- 18.2. Should there be a second Time Release position available, this position shall be filled by the Vice-President/Chief Negotiator of the Bargaining Unit, barring exceptional circumstances.

By-Law 19 – Rules of Order

- 19.1. At all Executive, General, Organizational Area, and Annual General Meetings of the Bargaining Unit the President, or designate, shall preside in a fair and democratic manner with consideration of the Constitution, By-Laws, and Policy of OSSTF and the PSSP Bargaining Unit. [Specific Rules of Order as determined under OSSTF Bylaw 24 as amended at Provincial Council, April, 1991, or as subsequently amended, shall govern the Meetings of the Bargaining Unit.]
- 19.2. Anti-Harassment and Anti-Bullying Policy: The Bargaining Unit shall have an Anti-Harassment and Anti-Bullying policy and procedure to be followed at all PSSP functions.
- 19.2.1. The Anti-harassment and Anti-Bullying policy and procedure and any amendments to it shall be approved by the Bargaining Unit Executive.
- 19.2.2. The OSSTF Anti-Harassment statement shall be adopted as general policy guidelines and read out and/ or distributed prior to any PSSP sponsored meeting or event.
- 19.2.3. At every PSSP sponsored meeting or event at least one Anti-harassment officer will be designated for members to contact.
- 19.3. The resolution and complaint procedure shall be as follows:
- a) Any member who believes s/he has been a target of harassment or discrimination at a PSSP sponsored meeting or event is encouraged to take immediate action to ensure this behaviour stops.
- b) As a first step, the member should make it clear to the perpetrator that s/he finds the behaviour offensive and ask that it be stopped. This can be done personally, either in writing or verbally, or with the assistance of a third party.
- c) If the behaviour recurs or persists, or if the member does not feel safe in approaching the perpetrator directly, s/he should speak with the designated officer(s) and ask her/him to act. If no officer has been designated, the member should speak with the Executive Officer in charge of the event to ask that one be appointed.
- d) The designated officer(s) will investigate the complaint promptly, including separately interviewing the parties involved and any witnesses, with a view to resolving the problem informally. During this process, the designated officer(s), with the approval of the President/ Executive Officer in charge of the event, may remove the respondent temporarily from the meeting if circumstances warrant.
- e) The investigation shall be handled confidentially; however, all complaints will be reported by the designated officer(s) to the President/ Executive Officer in charge of the event.
- f) If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant will be asked to put the complaint and all relevant information in writing. If the complainant chooses to provide such a written complaint, it will be submitted to the OSSTF General Secretary for action and it shall be the joint responsibility of the General Secretary and the Secretariat attached to the Bargaining Unit to conduct an investigation, determine if the behaviour falls under the definition of harassment, and decide on appropriate remedial action.
- g) The parties involved will receive a written report stating the findings and any action taken.

h) Resolutions may include but are not limited to apologies, mediation, warnings, temporarily limiting access, or removal/exclusion from the meeting or event. If a decision is made to remove or exclude that member, and where this member is representing a bargaining unit or district, a confidential letter outlining the reasons for this decision will be sent to the President.

i) Decisions may be reviewed by Judicial Council on the request of a member or appealed to the bargaining unit grievance appeals committee as per bylaw 17.7.

j) The OSSTF General Secretary shall keep a confidential file of all records and reports related to the investigation of written complaints for a period of five years.

k) None of the above restricts a member's right to file a complaint with the TDSB Human Rights and Workplace Harassment Office, Ontario Human Rights Commission or make a complaint to police.

By-Law 20 – Standing Committees

20.1. The Bargaining Unit Executive shall establish each year the following Standing Committees:

20.1.1. Grievance Committee, with the President as Chair.

21.1.1. Members of the Bargaining Unit are entitled to vote at a meeting held for the purposes of ratifying a proposed Collective Agreement.

- 21.1.2. Ratification or strike votes shall be conducted by secret ballot.
- 21.1.3. Proxy votes will be accepted if the member is unable to attend due to:
 - 21.1.3.1. serious illness
 - 21.1.3.2. attendance at a funeral of a family member or close friend
 - 21.1.3.3. the member being required by the Employer to be outside the City of Toronto on the day of the vote
- 21.1.4. Proxy votes will not be accepted for any other reasons.
- 21.1.5. The Executive will determine the method for proxy votes.
- 21.2. Reasonable efforts will be made to provide printed details of Collective Agreement revisions to members who qualify to vote by proxy. These efforts will not delay the ratification vote.
- 21.3. The Executive of the Bargaining Unit shall hold at least one membership meeting for the purposes of a Collective Agreement ratification or strike vote.
- 21.4. In the event that there is more than one meeting for the purposes of a Collective Agreement ratification or strike vote, such meetings shall be held within twenty-four (24) hours of each other.
- 21.5. The Executive shall appoint a ratification or strike vote committee to conduct any meeting for the purpose of a Collective Agreement ratification or strike vote. This committee shall ensure that a fair and secret ballot is held, and shall determine the results of the voting immediately following the vote being taken.
- 21.6. When a Collective Agreement ratification meeting is scheduled, a detailed summary of the proposed agreement shall be made available to the membership at least five (5) working days prior to the meeting.
- 21.7. In the event that members are on strike, or locked-out by the Employer, the five (5) days referenced in 21.6 may be reduced to a minimum of one (1) working day.

By-Law 22 AMPA Delegates and Alternates

- 22.1. The Bargaining Unit Executive shall appoint delegates and alternates to the Annual Meeting of the Provincial Assembly (AMPA) from members who have made application.

By-Law 23 Reserve Funds

23.1. The Bargaining Unit may establish the following accounts:

23.1.1. General Fund Account: to be used for general operating activities of the Bargaining Unit. This fund balance shall not exceed $100,000. Any excess will be transferred to the Low Risk Investment Account.

23.1.2. Low Risk Investment Account: to be used to hold the outstanding balance of the Bargaining Unit funds.

23.2 The PSSP Executive shall have authority over all accounts.

23.3 The PSSP Executive shall report to the Annual General Meeting a summary of the allocation of all monies moved into, or out of, these accounts.
